You are free:

- to Share — to copy, distribute and transmit the work
- to Remix — to adapt the work

Under the following conditions:

- Attribution. You must attribute the work as described below:

1. Geoscience Australia material used 'as supplied'

Provided you have not modified or transformed the satellite data supplied by Geoscience Australia, the data may be used, copied or distributed provided you make clear to others the licence terms of this work. The best way to do this is to keep intact all copyright notices including the attribution and the link to the Creative Commons Attribution 3.0 Australia Licence web page, as follows:

© Commonwealth of Australia (Geoscience Australia) <year of publication>

This material is released under the Creative Commons Attribution 3.0 Australia Licence.

2. Derivative material

If you have modified or transformed the satellite data supplied by Geoscience Australia, or derived new material from the satellite data supplied by Geoscience Australia, you must clearly attribute the Commonwealth of Australia (Geoscience Australia) for the use of the data and take reasonable steps to clearly identify that changes were made to the satellite data, e.g. in your credits, acknowledgements or sources.

With the understanding that:

Waiver — Any of the above conditions can be waived if you get permission from the copyright holder.

Public Domain — Where the work or any of its elements is in the public domain under applicable law, that status is in no way affected by the license.

Other Rights — In no way are any of the following rights affected by the licence:

- Your fair dealing or fair use rights, or other applicable copyright exceptions and limitations;
- The author's moral rights;
- Rights other persons may have either in the work itself or in how the work is used, such as publicity or privacy rights.
